Abstracts

Global Human Resource Management Market is valued approximately USD 19.38 billion in 2021 and is anticipated to grow with a healthy growth rate of more than 12.8 % over the forecast period 2022-2028. Over the forecast period, the market is likely to see a jump in demand due to the increased use of automation and digitalization of HR activities in order to build more flexible and effective ways. The success of an organisation can also be determined by the efforts it makes to attract the correct pool of people and manage resources effectively. These advances are being adopted by businesses since these human resource management solutions have the ability to improve and enhance HR operations, ultimately boosting the market. IBM and Apptio, Inc. established a cooperation in October 2021 to improve corporate transformation using IBM's open hybrid cloud architecture. Through hybrid cloud technologies and IBM's open hybrid cloud strategy, the alliance will assist clients in driving Red Hat OpenShift adoption and improving decision-making. However, threat of cyber attacks impedes the growth of the market over the forecast period of 2022-2028. The integration of human resource management (HRM) systems with analytics is becoming easier because of advancements in current technologies like as predictive analytics, Machine Learning (ML), and Artificial Intelligence (AI).

The key regions considered for the Global Human Resource Management Market study includes Asia Pacific, North America, Europe, Latin America, and Rest of the World. The market was dominated by North America. Numerous HRM solution vendors may be found in North America. HRM systems for payroll administration, attendance & time monitoring, and talent management, among other procedures, are being deployed by businesses in the United States to boost productivity and labour efficiency. Because of the expenditures made by governments and the initiatives followed in the area in digitalization, Asia Pacific is expected to have the quickest CAGR from 2022 to 2028. In addition, the regional market will be fueled by an increase in the number of automation efforts being implemented to boost organizational efficiency.
