Abstracts

Global Macadamia Nut Market is valued approximately at USD 1.31 Billion in 2020 and is anticipated to grow with a healthy growth rate of more than 9.8% over the forecast period 2021-2027. Macadamia nuts are low in sugar and carbohydrates, it contains several essential nutrients such as dietary fiber and antioxidants which helps in reducing the risk or managing conditions such as diabetes, cardiovascular diseases, and digestive health. It is also a good source of protein. The global Macadamia Nut market is being driven by increase in global demand for healthy and nutritious snacks and increase in government initiatives is supporting Macadamia production and trade. Furthermore, the rising consumer preference and awareness towards healthier snacking will provide new opportunities for the global Macadamia Nut industry. For instance, in 2019, the Southern African Macadamia Growers' Association had worked on various projects such as Phytophthora control, pruning, stink bug scouting techniques/chemicals, thrip/mite control, pollination/bee hive requirements, nut borer management and control, cultivar research, breeding, sting bug control average rating, and more. As a result, increase in various association initiatives is supporting Macadamia Production, which will serve as a catalyst for the Macadamia Nut industry in the future. However, fluctuating production cost and unstable climate condition for macadamia may impede market growth over the forecast period of 2021-2027.

Asia Pacific, North America, Europe, Latin America, and Rest of the World are the key region considered for the regional analysis or global macadamia nut market. The rising awareness of diets that are rich in nutrients and protein and the increasing inclusion of tree nuts in diets makes Asia Pacific the leading region across the world in terms of market share. Whereas North America is also anticipated to exhibit the highest growth rate over the forecast period 2021-2027, due to the rise in consumption of tree nut in the region.
