Abstracts

Global Public Warehousing Market is valued approximately USD XX billion in 2021 and is anticipated to grow with a healthy growth rate of more than XX% over the forecast period 2022-2029. Public Warehouse is a separate business that focuses on distribution and warehousing. Along with offering storage space for goods, it also provides inventory management, actual inventory counts, and shipping capabilities. These services cover a range of methods for storing products depending on the environment. The increasing growth of e-commerce industry worldwide and growing demand for refrigerated warehousing solutions are key factors driving the market growth.

The increasing expansion of global ecommerce marketplace is influencing the growth of the Global Public Warehousing market. For instance- In 2021, global retail e-commerce sales estimated at USD 5.2 trillion, and as per projections this figure is likely to grow by 56 percent over the next years, to reach USD 8.1 trillion by 2026. Additionally, in 2021, e-commerce accounted for nearly 19 percent of retail sales worldwide, and as per estimates by 2026, the online segment would account for a quarter of total global retail sales. Also, increasing investment for development of multimodal logistics parks, and growing technological advancements in logistics & warehousing industry would create lucrative growth prospectus for the market over the forecast period. However, several concerns pertaining to stifles market growth throughout the forecast period of 2022-2029.

The key regions considered for the Global Public Warehousing Market study includes Asia Pacific, North America, Europe, Latin America, and Rest of the World. North America dominated the market in terms of revenue, owing to increasing investment in warehousing and logistics sector and rising expansion of cross border trade in post covid era in the region. Whereas Asia Pacific is expected to grow with a highest CAGR during the forecast period, owing to factors such as rising expansion of third-party logistics industry as well as increasing penetration of leading market players in the region.
