Abstracts

Global Roasted Coffee Market is valued at approximately USD 40.40 billion in 2021 and is anticipated to grow with a healthy growth rate of more than 5.7% over the forecast period 2022-2029. Apart from being flavorful and aromatic, freshly roasted coffee is also nutritious. Freshly Roasted coffee includes plentiful antioxidants. Coffee is one of the most widely consumed beverages in the world, and as consumption rises, so does the market expansion. Moreover, Due to multiple health benefits, coffee consumption has increased significantly across the board for all age groups. Gen Z and millennials are increasingly embracing coffee.

The Consumption of Coffee is increased across all age groups as a result of various Heath Benefits, including lowering the risk of diabetes, assisting in the good health of the liver, heart and stomach. According to a research released in November 2021 by the National Coffee Association (NCA), the COVID-19 pandemic was the primary driver of coffee consumption at home, with 85% of Americans consuming at least one cup there. The proliferation of coffee shops and the rising popularity of going there among the younger generation is driving more use and consumption of roasted coffee, which is boosting market growth. For instance, one of the top brands, Starbucks Coffee Corporation, is present in around 80 different nations and runs about 35,711 locations that are both licensed and owned by the company. Additionally, the market is anticipated to increase as a result of the increasing number of product releases by different industry participants. However, the Lower shelf life of Roasted Coffee stifles market growth throughout the forecast period of 2022-2029.

The key regions considered for the Global Roasted Coffee Marketstudy includes Asia Pacific, North America, Europe, Latin America, and Rest of the World. With 1/3rd share in the market in 2022, Europe is the most dominating region for Roasted coffee. Approximately 54 million bags, each weighing 60 kg, was consumed in Europe in 2021, according to a report by the Centre for the Promotion of Imports from Developing Countries (CBI). The region is growing as a result of the high consumption of roasted coffee and customers' growing interest. The fastest growing region is expected to be Asia Pacific. The market is also growing as a result of increased product demand and consumption brought on by greater urbanization and westernized lifestyles.
