Abstracts

Global Shortening Powder Market is valued approximately USD XX million in 2021 and is anticipated to grow with a healthy growth rate of more than XX % over the forecast period 2022-2028. The Shortening Powder refers to an edible fat made out mostly from vegetable sources like soya bean or palm kernel. Shortening powder is used making of different bakery products such as brownies and bar cookies. The growing Bakery and Confectionery industry and increasing number chain restaurants & outlets are accelerating the global market demand. For instance, according to Statista – as of 2022, revenue of Bread & Bakery Products segment is estimated at USD 1197 billion, and this market is projected to grow by CAGR of 5.52% between 2022 and 2027 to reach to USD 1565.91 billion by end of 2027. Furthermore, in February 2019 US-based food and agriculture group Cargill launched its new palm shortening line named Palm Agility for bakery products customers. Moreover, according to Statista – In 2020, the market of the bakery cafe sector in the United States was valued at USD 11.2 billion, and it further increased to USD 11.69 billion by end of 2021. Also, growing consumption of ready-toeat food products and increasing penetration of online food services platforms are anticipated to act as a catalyzing factor for the market demand during the forecast period. However, health issues associated with overconsumption of Fats impede the growth of the market over the forecast period of 2022-2028.

The key regions considered for the global Shortening Powder Market study include Asia Pacific, North America, Europe, Latin America, and the Rest of the World. North America is the leading region across the world in terms of market share owing to the growing expansion of organized food outlets and presence of leading market players in the region. Whereas, Asia Pacific is anticipated to exhibit a significant growth rate over the forecast period 2022-2028. Factors such as the thriving growth of online food services and rising demand for convenience food products in the region, would create lucrative growth prospects for the global Shortening Powder Market across the Asia Pacific region.
