Abstracts

Global Specialty Mint Oils Market is valued approximately USD XX million in 2021 and is anticipated to grow with a healthy growth rate of more than XX % over the forecast period 2022-2028. The Specialty Mint Oils also known as peppermint oil extracted from the leaves of the peppermint plant. Peppermint oil features analgesic, antispasmodic, and anti-inflammatory properties. Peppermint oil is widely utilized across different products such as Oral Products, Confectionary Products, Pharmaceutical Products, Tobacco Products, and Fragrance Products among others. The rising prevalence of dental caries and increasing adoption of Mint oils in end use applications as well as growing beauty and personal care industry are accelerating the global market demand. For instance, according to The Institute for Health Metrics and Evaluation (IHME)'s Global Burden of Disease Study 2019 estimates – Worldwide around 3.5 billion people are affected by oral diseases. Furthermore, caries of permanent teeth was estimated as the most prevalent condition type, it affected around 2 billion adults and around 520 million children worldwide. Furthermore, in February 2020, Vernier, Switzerland based Givaudan, completed the acquisition of New Jersey, US based Ungerer & Company. Ungerer & Company specializes in Flavour, Fragrance and Specialty Ingredients. Also, growing adoption of natural ingredient based products and surging pharmaceuticals industry in emerging economies are anticipated to act as a catalyzing factor for the market demand during the forecast period. However, several side-effects associated with specialty mint oils such as heartburn, nausea, abdominal pain, and dry mouth impede the growth of the market over the forecast period of 2022-2028.

The key regions considered for the global Specialty Mint Oils Market study include Asia Pacific, North America, Europe, Latin America, and the Rest of the World. Europe is the leading region across the world in terms of market share owing to the presence of well-established personal care and cosmetics industry and increasing preference towards natural ingredient based products. Whereas, Asia Pacific is anticipated to exhibit a significant growth rate over the forecast period 2022-2028. Factors such as growing pharmaceuticals industry and rising number of health conscious individuals in the region, would create lucrative growth prospects for the global Specialty Mint Oils Market across the Asia Pacific region.
