Abstracts

Global Tableware Market is valued approximately USD 47.67 billion in 2021 and is anticipated to grow with a healthy growth rate of more than 6.03% over the forecast period 2022-2028. Tableware is any dish which is used for setting a table, serving food and dining. Tableware includes glassware, cutlery, serving dish, and other items for decorating as well as practical purpose. Tableware can be made of wood, pewter, latten, silver, gold, glass, acrylic and plastic. The increase in urbanization is driving the growth for the tableware market as population is shifting towards houses. For instance: as per the World Bank, in 2021, over 55% of the worlds population that is 4.2 billion people lives in cities. And this is growing continuously. It is anticipated that by 2050, the urban population will be double its size. That is 7 out of 10 people would be living in the cities. Furthermore, changing lifestyle of people is also driving the growth for the tableware market for the forecasted period. Also, innovative designs and attractive colors leads to the adoption & demand for Tableware is likely to increase the market growth during the forecast period. However, increasing awareness for the health benefits of using stainless steels and aluminum plates impedes the growth of the market over the forecast period of 2022-2028.

The key regions considered for the Global Tableware Market study includes Asia Pacific, North America, Europe, Latin America and Rest of the World. Europe is the significant region across the world in terms of market share owing to the high usage of different types of tableware's in the region and high sending power of consumers is driving the market growth for the tableware market in the region. Whereas, Asia-Pacific is also anticipated to exhibit highest CAGR over the forecast period 2022-2028. Factors such as rising disposable income, changing lifestyle and disposable income of consumer would create lucrative growth prospects for the Tableware market across Asia-Pacific region.
