Abstracts

Global Trade Finance Market (TFM) to reach USD XXX billion by 2025.

Global Trade Finance Market (TFM) valued approximately USD XXX billion in 2016 is anticipated to grow with a healthy growth rate of more than 4.21% over the forecast period 2018-2025. The technology development is the main factor in the growth of the Global Trade Finance Market (TFM). The technological advancement has reduced processing time by the digitalization of trade documentation like purchase orders, invoices, and bills of lading, and the risk management approaches like tracking the progress of transactions reduce the associated risk with the transactions process aiding to the growth of trade finance market. Trade finance includes both domestic and international trade. Trade finance includes issuing the letter of Credit (LC), lending, the export-credit services, and insurance services. However, uncertain economic conditions, legal certainty limitations, and political situation are hindering the growth of the Global Trade Finance Market (TFM).
