Abstracts

Global Veterinary Hospital Market is valued at approximately USD 79.2 billion in 2022 and is anticipated to grow with a healthy growth rate of more than 5.80% over the forecast period 2023-2030. The Veterinary Hospital market refers to the industry comprising medical facilities specifically dedicated to the diagnosis, treatment, and care of animals, including pets, livestock, and wildlife. These hospitals cater to the health and well-being of companion animals, livestock, and other animals requiring veterinary care. The Veterinary Hospital Market is being driven by factors such as the consolidation of Animal Hospitals and Growing Animal Population & Adoption.

The veterinary hospital is a medical facility specifically designed to provide healthcare services for animals. According to Canadian Veterinary Medical Association In 2022, Canada had around 15,322 veterinarians, with approximately 3,825 actively engaged in clinical practice. Canadian Veterinary Medical Association. According to The World Animal Foundation, in 2022, domesticated pets were found in approximately 70% of households with pets, totaling around 90.5 million. Dogs accounted for approximately 69 million, while cats were even more prevalent with over 45.3 million, indicating widespread ownership of these animals. In addition, rising awareness about animal health and an increasing number of pet insurance may create lucrative opportunities for the market. However, the Shortage Of board-certified veterinarians may hinder the growth of the market over the forecast year 2023-2030.

The key regions considered for the Global Veterinary Hospital Market study includes

Asia Pacific, North America, Europe, Latin America, and Middle East & Africa. North America dominated the market in 2022 owing to a large number of established veterinary hospitals & clinics and increasing pet ownership & advances in veterinary medicine. Latin America is considered the fastest growing region during the forecasted period due to the growing animal population and demand for better veterinary solutions & rising animal services expenditure in the region.
