Abstracts

Methyl Methacrylate (MMA) Adhesives is a form of acrylic adhesive made from resin and hardener with the help of rubber and other similar strengthening agents, which can cure ambient temperature and provide full bond strength soon after application. According to BlueQuark Research & Consulting, the global Methyl Methacrylate Adhesives market is expected to witness a significant growth rate during the forecasted period. Factors like the increasing demand for Methyl Methacrylate Adhesives from the Automotive industry due to its ability to bond with various substrates are expected to drive the global Methyl Methacrylate Adhesives market. Further, the increasing demand for Methyl Methacrylate Adhesives in the Building & Construction industry due to their properties like excellent durability, weather resistance are expected to propel the future Methyl Methacrylate Adhesives market. Moreover, the surging demand for Methyl Methacrylate Adhesives in the Wind Energy industry due to its ability high temperature, electrical insulation, etc., is expected to drive the global Methyl Methacrylate Adhesives market. However, factors like the volatile price of the raw materials are restraining the growth of the global Methyl Methacrylate Adhesives market.

Methyl Methacrylate Adhesives are used in bumpers, roofs, deflectors, composite tanks, blades, interior body panel structures, car seats, and instrument panels of cars, rails, buses, trucks, and tanks, etc.

The Primary use of Methyl Methacrylate Adhesives is in the Automotive Industry. There has been a remarkable increase in the usage of Methyl Methacrylate Adhesives in the Automotive industry due to its desirable properties like high tension strength, excellent impact and peel strength, high toughness & flexibility, temperature resistance, fatigue resistance, etc., thereby driving the global Methyl Methacrylate Adhesives market. MMA adhesives offer benefits over other adhesives by bonding with materials having different strengths and coefficients of thermal expansion, distributing the load evenly to the entire bonding area. Further, increasing demand for lightweight, energy-efficient, and high-performance vehicles across the globe is considered primary drivers for MMA Adhesives, thereby driving the growth of the global Methyl Methacrylate market. Furthermore, factors like the usage of MMA Adhesives in the manufacturing of automobiles, as they have the ability to improve the durability, aesthetics as well as reduce the overall weight of vehicles, thereby elevating fuel efficiency and limiting carbon emissions and overall cost, are projected to drive the growth of the Methyl Methacrylate Adhesives Market. Manufacturers have also started investing in research & development to produce more innovative, cost-effective, high-performance products. These are the factors projected to drive the growth of the Global Methyl Methacrylate Adhesives market.

Some of the market's key players are 3M, The Arkema Group, Henkel AG, Parson, Permabond, and Scigrip, among others.

The Asia-Pacific region is expected to be a market leader in the future as it is one of the fastest-growing markets for Methyl Methacrylate Adhesives. Factors like increasing population, increase in growing income families, young population, and demand in the domestic and regional markets have elevated the demand for Methyl Methacrylate Adhesives in these regions, thereby driving the market in the Asia-Pacific region. China and India are the primary consumers in Asia-Pacific Region, with China holding a large economic GDP. Further, factors like the growing popularity of non-hazardous, green, and sustainable adhesives are estimated to drive the Methyl Methacrylate market. Moreover, there has been an increase in usage of MMA adhesives in various building applications like windows, uPVC doors, canopies, panels, architectural components, etc., owing to its properties like UV resistance, high transparency, surface hardness, light transmission, heat insulation, thereby driving the growth of Methyl Methacrylate market. Methyl Methacrylate adhesives have been used in the Wind Energy industry as it offers high strength & temperature resistance and also reduce the noise of wind blades and turbines. Factors like these have made Asia-Pacific an essential scope for the global Methyl Methacrylate Adhesives market.

In Dec 2020, Arkema announced the divestment of its PMMA business to Trinseo.

In Oct 2021, DFCP completes Acquisition of Unichem.
