Report Overview

Business Process Services (BPS) refer to the outsourcing of business processes to third-party service providers. This includes a wide range of services that streamline operations, enhance efficiency, and reduce costs for organizations. BPS encompasses both staffing solutions (outsourcing of specific roles or functions) and technology-driven solutions, such as process digitization and automation. The services can include data entry, customer support, finance and accounting, human resources, and IT services, among others. By leveraging BPS, companies can focus on their core business while external providers manage non-core processes, utilizing both human expertise and advanced technology.
