Abstracts

Business skills training refers to an educational service model that provides systematic, structured courses to enhance business knowledge and practical skills to individual learners or corporate organizations via an internet platform. The growth of the business skills training market is primarily driven by the rapid evolution of workplace skills in the digital economy, businesses' emphasis on talent competitiveness, and individuals' urgent need for career development and job security. As technologies like artificial intelligence, big data, and cloud computing reshape the business landscape, traditional knowledge structures are rapidly becoming obsolete. Companies urgently need their employees to master emerging skills like data analysis, digital marketing, project management, and leadership to maintain innovation and efficiency. At the same time, individuals are increasingly willing to invest in self-improvement to meet fierce job competition and achieve career transitions or advancement. The widespread adoption of online learning platforms has broken down time and space constraints, providing flexible, affordable, and high-quality course resources, making lifelong learning a norm.

The global Business Skills Training market size was estimated at USD 8612.0 million in 2025 and is projected to grow at a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 5.00% during the forecast period.

This report offers a comprehensive and in-depth analysis of the global Business Skills Training market, covering all critical facets from a broad macroeconomic overview to detailed micro-level insights. It examines market size, competitive landscape, emerging development trends, niche segments, key drivers and challenges, as well as conducts SWOT and value chain analyses.

The insights provided enable readers to understand the competitive dynamics within the
