Abstracts

Anime garage kits refer to the unpainted resin module kit. It is a kind of collection model and a kind of Japanese animation peripherals. The original English is Garage Kits (GK), which means Model Kits. Market driving factors Popularization of animation culture and IP effect: The global influence of animation works has expanded, such as Japanese animation bringing foreign exchange income through overseas exports and derivative sales. The sales of licensed products of popular IPs (such as Marvel and DC) have increased significantly, attracting core fan groups. Consumption upgrade and collection demand: The mid-to-high-end market accounts for 40%, and consumers pursue high-quality, fine coating and limited edition products. Some consumers regard them as investment products. Policy support and tax incentives: The Chinese government promotes the development of the cultural industry, implements tax exemptions, financial subsidies and export tax rebates for PVC hand-made enterprises, and reduces corporate costs. Technological progress and material innovation: 3D printing, AR/VR technology enhance product interactivity (such as virtual display, gamification experience); the application of environmentally friendly materials (such as degradable PVC) responds to the trend of green consumption. Channel diversification and online growth: Online channels (Taobao, JD.com) account for 60%, providing convenient shopping experience and pre-sale mode; offline stores strengthen physical display and community interaction. The rise of young consumer groups: Post-90s and post-00s consumers account for 70%, of which female consumers account for 45%, becoming the main force in the market.

The global Anime Garage Kits market size was estimated at USD 6932.0 million in 2025 and is projected to grow at a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 13.50% during the forecast period.
