The Art & Sculpture market refers to the global industry encompassing the creation, sale, and acquisition of three-dimensional artworks and collectible artifacts produced for aesthetic, cultural, or investment purposes. It includes the trade of original sculptures, limited editions, and cultural artifacts across both the primary market (artists, galleries, and direct commissions) and the secondary market (auction houses, private dealers, and resale platforms). Market activities span from high-value fine art transactions to decorative and architectural sculptures integrated into real estate and interior design projects.
