Abstracts

Beauty dietary supplements, also known as nutricosmetics, are oral supplements that provide beauty benefits by nourishing the skin, hair, and nails from the inside out. These products combine the principles of nutrition and cosmetics, offering a holistic approach to beauty by promoting natural radiance and health. As the latest trend in the beauty industry, nutricosmetics have gained popularity due to their alignment with modern wellness culture, emphasizing beauty from within. These supplements work by delivering essential nutrients that support skin hydration, hair strength, and nail health, making them an integral part of contemporary beauty routines.

The global Beauty Dietary Supplements market size was estimated at USD 7856.0 million in 2025 and is projected to grow at a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 6.60% during the forecast period.

This report offers a comprehensive and in-depth analysis of the global Beauty Dietary Supplements market, covering all critical facets from a broad macroeconomic overview to detailed micro-level insights. It examines market size, competitive landscape, emerging development trends, niche segments, key drivers and challenges, as well as conducts SWOT and value chain analyses.

The insights provided enable readers to understand the competitive dynamics within the industry and formulate effective strategies to enhance profitability and market positioning. Additionally, the report presents a clear framework for evaluating the current status and future outlook of business organizations operating in this sector.

A significant focus of this report lies in the competitive landscape of the global Beauty Dietary Supplements market. It offers detailed profiles of major players, including their
