Abstracts

The 2025 U.S. tariff policies introduce profound uncertainty into the global economic landscape. This report critically examines the implications of recent tariff adjustments and international strategic countermeasures on Bikinis and One-piece Swimsuits competitive dynamics, regional economic interdependencies, and supply chain reconfigurations.Bikinis and one-piece swimsuits are two very different styles of swimwear, each meeting different scenarios and aesthetic needs. Bikinis are characterized by a two-piece cut, with a separate top and a high-waist, low-waist or thong-style bottom that highlights the body curve. They are suitable for beach vacations, sunbathing and other leisure scenes, and are mainly sexy, free and personalized. One-piece swimsuits use an integrated design with a larger coverage area. They are commonly seen in sports swimming, diving or conservative occasions. They focus on functionality, have both body shaping and sun protection effects, and are more suitable for water sports or family travel.

The global Bikinis and One-piece Swimsuits market size was estimated at USD 22020.0 million in 2025 and is projected to grow at a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 5.20% during the forecast period.

This report offers a comprehensive and in-depth analysis of the global Bikinis and One-piece Swimsuits market, covering all critical facets from a broad macroeconomic overview to detailed micro-level insights. It examines market size, competitive landscape, emerging development trends, niche segments, key drivers and challenges, as well as conducts SWOT and value chain analyses.

The insights provided enable readers to understand the competitive dynamics within the industry and formulate effective strategies to enhance profitability and market
