Abstracts

Several food and beverages are being prepared from Cannabis since last few years. Cannabis edible, or a cannabis-infused food is a type food product that contains cannabinoids, especially tetrahydrocannabinol THC or CBD. Most edibles that are made from cannabis contain a noticeable amount of THC, which induces a wide range of health effects, including relaxation, increased appetite, euphoria, anxiety, and fatigue. THC or CBD infused edibles food items are consumed for medical and recreational purposes. Food and beverages that are made by using non-psychoactive cannabis are called hemp foods. Cannabis-infused baked good is a common type of cannabis food. The food market includes both fresh and processed foods. According to our research, the global food and beverage market has a sales revenue of approximately US$10 trillion. China is the world's number one food and beverage market and the world's number one food and beverage producer. In the market drivers section, the total consumer spending forecast shows that consumption at home is growing faster than consumption away from home. However, food service continues to become increasingly important due to changing lifestyles. In addition, the rise of private label brands is putting pressure on the margins of brand manufacturers as retailers compete for a higher share of product sales.

The global Cannabis Food and Beverage market size was estimated at USD 1041.0 million in 2025 and is projected to grow at a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 25.30% during the forecast period.

This report offers a comprehensive and in-depth analysis of the global Cannabis Food and Beverage market, covering all critical facets from a broad macroeconomic overview to detailed micro-level insights. It examines market size, competitive landscape, emerging development trends, niche segments, key drivers and challenges, as well as conducts SWOT and value chain analyses.

The insights provided enable readers to understand the competitive dynamics within the industry and formulate effective strategies to enhance profitability and market positioning. Additionally, the report presents a clear framework for evaluating the current status and future outlook of business organizations operating in this sector.

A significant focus of this report lies in the competitive landscape of the global Cannabis Food and Beverage market. It offers detailed profiles of major players, including their market shares, performance metrics, product portfolios, and operational status.
