Report Overview:

City duty-free retailing refers to the operation of duty-free shops located within cities or urban areas, as opposed to those typically found at international airports or border crossings. Duty-free shops are retail outlets where travelers can purchase goods such as alcohol, tobacco, perfume, cosmetics, electronics, and other products without paying the import duties or taxes that would normally apply to these items when brought into the country. These shops are often situated in locations with a high volume of international tourists or travelers.

The Global City Duty Free Retailing Market Size was estimated at USD 291.09 million in 2023 and is projected to reach USD 451.75 million by 2029, exhibiting a CAGR of 7.60% during the forecast period.
