Abstracts

The comprehensive medical accompaniment service is an accompanying support for patients who need medical treatment, covering multiple service types from appointment registration, examination guidance, payment and medication to rehabilitation arrangements after discharge. This service is designed to help patients and their families smoothly complete various procedures in the hospital and reduce the burden of the medical process. The medical accompaniment service can be divided into basic accompaniment and advanced accompaniment according to needs. Advanced accompaniment is suitable for critically ill patients, the elderly and other patients with special needs. Accompaniers usually have a medical background to ensure professional support. The comprehensive medical accompaniment service brings convenience and peace of mind to patients and is an important part of the modern medical service system.

The global Comprehensive Medical Escort Service market size was estimated at USD 8910.0 million in 2024 and is projected to grow at a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 12.30% during the forecast period.
