Abstracts

Connected TV (CTV) advertising services refer to the delivery of targeted ads on internet-connected televisions. This technology enables advertisers to reach a wide audience through digital channels, often utilizing data-driven insights to tailor ads to specific demographics and interests. CTV ads can be displayed before, during, or after video content, offering a seamless viewing experience. The CTV advertising industry is experiencing rapid growth, driven by the increasing popularity of streaming services and the shift of consumer viewing habits from traditional linear TV to digital platforms. As more households cut the cord and embrace streaming, advertisers are turning to CTV to reach their target audience. Key trends in the industry include the rise of programmatic advertising, which allows for automated buying and selling of ad inventory, and the increasing use of advanced targeting techniques, such as demographic, geographic, and behavioral targeting. Additionally, the integration of data-driven insights and measurement tools is enabling advertisers to optimize their campaigns and measure their effectiveness.

The global Connected TV Advertising Services market size was estimated at USD 25070.0 million in 2025 and is projected to grow at a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 3.40% during the forecast period.

This report offers a comprehensive and in-depth analysis of the global Connected TV Advertising Services market, covering all critical facets from a broad macroeconomic overview to detailed micro-level insights. It examines market size, competitive landscape, emerging development trends, niche segments, key drivers and challenges, as well as conducts SWOT and value chain analyses.

The insights provided enable readers to understand the competitive dynamics within the industry and formulate effective strategies to enhance profitability and market positioning. Additionally, the report presents a clear framework for evaluating the current status and future outlook of business organizations operating in this sector.
