Report Overview:

Corporate Assessment Services in this report refers to talent assessment. Defined as “the process used to help employers identify the right job candidates for their company,” Corporate Assessment is increasingly recognized as a critical component of company performance and success—especially amid today’s economic landscape. Corporate assessment is used to identify the best-fit candidates for a job, either as a pre-hire assessment or for personnel development. With the help of talent assessments recruiters can look beyond CVs, school grades, college certificates and university diplomas to find out, whether a candidate is a good person-job-match. Valid assessment tools provide information about e.g. candidates’ abilities, personality traits, motivation, working styles or digital readiness. All the information gathered from different assessments can make a prediction of a candidates’ job- performance and success and might even forecast the retention rate. The use of talent assessments does not only make sense for pre-employment testing, but can also be extremely beneficial for self assessment, employee development and identifying leadership potential.

The Global Corporate Assessment Services Market Size was estimated at USD 3607.44 million in 2023 and is projected to reach USD 5567.37 million by 2029, exhibiting a CAGR of 7.50% during the forecast period.
