Report Overview

Coworking Space is an arrangement in which workers of different companies share an office space, allowing cost savings and convenience through the use of common infrastructures, such as equipment, utilities, and receptionist and custodial services, and in some cases refreshments and parcel acceptance services. It is attractive to independent contractors, independent scientists, telecommuting larger work teams that want flexibility and to avoid wasted real estate space if some employees are working from home, and work-at-home professionals, and people who travel frequently. Additionally, coworking helps workers avoid the feeling of isolation they may experience while telecommuting, traveling, or working at home alone, and eliminate distractions. Most coworking spaces charge membership dues.

The global Coworking Space market size was estimated at USD 7300 million in 2023 and is projected to reach USD 15212.15 million by 2032, exhibiting a CAGR of 8.50% during the forecast period.

North America Coworking Space market size was estimated at USD 2189.44 million in 2023, at a CAGR of 7.29% during the forecast period of 2024 through 2032.
