Report Overview

Crime insurance policy provides extensive coverages and safeguards against theft by staff and other consequences resulting from forgery, software abuse, and others. In addition, crime insurance is largely preferred by financial organizations, banks, private companies, and other businesses. In case of any criminal fraud, it is the obligation of insurance provider to defend policyholders from potential claims or liabilities suffered by the insured. It also protects costs or claims that arise from losses through instruments such as cheques that are corruptly withdrawn on behalf of the policyholder by a third-party.
