Abstracts

Cross-border Interbank Payment System (hereinafter referred to as the “CIPS”) is a wholesale payment system authorized by the People’s Bank of China (hereinafter referred to as the “PBC”). Specializing in RMB cross-border payment clearing, CIPS takes efforts to provide reliable, efficient, convenient and low-cost clearing and settlement services. As one of important financial market infrastructures (FMIs) in China, CIPS has played a positive role in contributing to the development of Shanghai international financial center, promoting two-way opening-up of the financial sector, strengthening financial support to China’s real sector economy, serving the Belt and Road Initiative (BRI) financing and facilitating the global use of RMB.As a China’s financial market infrastructure, the construction and operation of CIPS are in line with international standards in the spirit of self-discipline and compliance, and also strictly abide by Principles for Financial Market Infrastructures and Core Principles for Systemically Important Payment Systems in terms of system design and rule establishment.The market size counted in this report is the amount of cross-border RMB payments processed by the system.

The global Cross-Border Interbank Payment System (CIPS) market size was estimated at USD 24345794.0 million in 2025 and is projected to grow at a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 29.40% during the forecast period.

This report offers a comprehensive and in-depth analysis of the global Cross-Border Interbank Payment System (CIPS) market, covering all critical facets from a broad macroeconomic overview to detailed micro-level insights. It examines market size, competitive landscape, emerging development trends, niche segments, key drivers and challenges, as well as conducts SWOT and value chain analyses.
