Abstracts

Event marketing services refer to services that involve planning, organizing, and executing various events to achieve marketing goals such as brand promotion, product sales, and customer relationship building. These events can be online or offline, including product launches, industry summits, exhibitions, roadshows, and experiential events. Through careful planning and execution, event marketing can effectively attract target audiences, enhance brand awareness, and increase market influence. The event marketing services industry is undergoing significant transformation and innovation. With the advent of the digital age, a hybrid model combining online and offline marketing is becoming the mainstream. Some important industry trends include:

- Online-Offline Integration: Combining online and offline events to create richer user experiences and expand the impact of events. For example, using live streaming, virtual reality, and other technologies to extend offline events online and attract more viewers.
- Data-Driven Marketing: Leveraging data analysis techniques to understand audience needs and optimize event planning and execution, improving event effectiveness.
- Experiential Marketing: Providing immersive experiences to create emotional connections with the brand and enhance brand loyalty.
- Social Media Marketing: Utilizing social media platforms to expand the impact of events and attract more participants.
- Sustainable Development: Focusing on environmental protection and social responsibility by organizing green events to establish a positive brand image.
- Virtual and Augmented Reality Technology: Using VR/AR technology to create more interactive and immersive event experiences.

The global Event Marketing Services market size was estimated at USD 936.0 million in 2025 and is projected to grow at a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 5.20% during the forecast period.
