Abstracts

Event planning insurance is an insurance product that specifically provides protection for various risks that may be faced during the event planning process. It mainly protects the rights and interests of event planners, organizers, contractors and related stakeholders, such as sponsors and suppliers, during the event planning and execution process. Whether it is a large-scale commercial event, cultural performance, sports event, or a small-scale corporate team building, private party, etc., as long as it involves event planning, the relevant entities can transfer risks by purchasing event planning insurance.

The global Event Planning Insurance market size was estimated at USD 317.0 million in 2025 and is projected to grow at a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 6.10% during the forecast period.

This report offers a comprehensive and in-depth analysis of the global Event Planning Insurance market, covering all critical facets from a broad macroeconomic overview to detailed micro-level insights. It examines market size, competitive landscape, emerging development trends, niche segments, key drivers and challenges, as well as conducts SWOT and value chain analyses.

The insights provided enable readers to understand the competitive dynamics within the industry and formulate effective strategies to enhance profitability and market positioning. Additionally, the report presents a clear framework for evaluating the current status and future outlook of business organizations operating in this sector.

A significant focus of this report lies in the competitive landscape of the global Event Planning Insurance market. It offers detailed profiles of major players, including their
