Abstracts

Fruit mooncake preparations refer to the ingredients, fillings, and semi-finished components used to produce fruit-flavored mooncakes, a seasonal pastry traditionally consumed during the Mid-Autumn Festival. These preparations typically include fruit-based pastes (such as from winter melon, lotus seed, or various berries), jams, preserved fruits, nuts, and sweeteners, often blended with oils or binders to achieve the desired texture and flavor profile. They may be sold as ready-to-use fillings, pre-mixed blends, or DIY ingredient kits targeting both commercial bakeries and home consumers, with formulations ranging from traditional recipes to modern innovations incorporating exotic fruits, reduced sugar options, or health-oriented additives. The category is distinct from savory or snow skin mooncake preparations and emphasizes fruit-derived sweetness and aroma, aligning with cultural preferences and contemporary dietary trends.
