Abstracts

A game poster is a poster used to promote and advertise a game primarily to persuade people to buy it. A gaming company often prints several posters that vary in size and content for various domestic and international markets. They normally contain an image with text. Posters help build brands. Customers are more likely to remember a firm when posters feature its distinctive colors and emblem. Modern, eye-catching posters provide a strong first impression and demonstrate to potential customers the professionalism of a company. Gaming posters market demand for the product will rise as there are more artists available, making it easier to produce video game artwork more swiftly. 12,600 artists and related employees were employed in the U.S. in 2020, according to statistics from the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics, and it is predicted that this number will rise by 9.5% by 2030. Customers are expecting personalized game posters as the number of artists is growing, fueling industry expansion. The constant introduction of new games by businesses all around the world will also help the market grow by boosting product profits.

The global Gaming Posters market size was estimated at USD 275.0 million in 2025 and is projected to grow at a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 11.00% during the forecast period.
