Report Overview

A home care franchise is a business model where individuals or companies can purchase the rights to operate a home care agency under an established brand. The franchisee receives training, support, and access to a proven business model and marketing strategies. Home care franchises typically provide non-medical services such as personal care, companionship, meal preparation, medication reminders, and light housekeeping to individuals who need assistance with daily activities but prefer to remain in their own homes. Franchisees can benefit from the brand recognition, established systems, and ongoing support provided by the franchisor, while also having the opportunity to serve their local community and build a profitable business.

The global Home Care Franchise market size was estimated at USD 360000 million in 2023 and is projected to reach USD 623881.18 million by 2032, exhibiting a CAGR of 6.30% during the forecast period.

North America Home Care Franchise market size was estimated at USD 104210.27 million in 2023, at a CAGR of 5.40% during the forecast period of 2024 through 2032.
