Abstracts

A long-lasting perfume, often referred to as a "long-lasting fragrance" or "long-wearing scent," is a type of fragrance formulation that has an extended staying power on the skin. The longevity of a perfume is influenced by various factors, including its composition, concentration of aromatic compounds, and the interaction with an individual's skin chemistry. Long-lasting perfumes are designed to retain their fragrance notes for an extended period, offering wearers a prolonged olfactory experience. The total size of the global beauty industry in 2022 was about US$ 427 billion, with the sales of skin care products was about US$ 190 billion, perfumes US$ 70 billion, color cosmetics US$ 80 billion, hair care products US$ 90 billion. Head beauty and personal care companies are concentrated in Europe and the United States. More than one-third of the top 100 companies are headquartered in the United States, and 22.9% of the companies are located in France.

The global Long Lasting Perfume market size was estimated at USD 31820.0 million in 2025 and is projected to grow at a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 6.40% during the forecast period.

This report offers a comprehensive and in-depth analysis of the global Long Lasting Perfume market, covering all critical facets from a broad macroeconomic overview to detailed micro-level insights. It examines market size, competitive landscape, emerging development trends, niche segments, key drivers and challenges, as well as conducts SWOT and value chain analyses.

The insights provided enable readers to understand the competitive dynamics within the industry and formulate effective strategies to enhance profitability and market positioning. Additionally, the report presents a clear framework for evaluating the current status and future outlook of business organizations operating in this sector.

A significant focus of this report lies in the competitive landscape of the global Long Lasting Perfume market. It offers detailed profiles of major players, including their market shares, performance metrics, product portfolios, and operational status.
