Abstracts

The makeup sealer market has been experiencing several trends in recent years. Here are some key trends in the makeup sealer market: Increasing demand for long-lasting and transfer-proof makeup: Consumers are looking for makeup sealers that can provide a long-lasting and transfer-proof finish. This trend is driven by the need for makeup that can withstand various activities throughout the day without smudging or fading. Growing popularity of setting sprays: Setting sprays have gained significant popularity in the makeup industry. These sprays are used after makeup application to lock it in place and provide a fresh, dewy, or matte finish, depending on the desired look. Setting sprays are convenient to use and offer a lightweight feel on the skin.

The global Makeup Sealer market size was estimated at USD 382.0 million in 2025 and is projected to grow at a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 7.40% during the forecast period.
