Abstracts

Mature Vinegar is vinegar aged for a malty, woody, and smoky flavor. It was first popularized in East Asia, particularly southern China, where in the city of Zhenjiang it became known as Chinkiang vinegar. It is made from rice (usually glutinous), or sorghum, or in some combination of those, perhaps including wheat and millet. The Mature Vinegar market represents a well-established and evolving segment within the food and condiment industry, focusing on the production and distribution of aged vinegars that have undergone a prolonged fermentation and maturation process.
