Report Overview

Microneedle skincare patches, also known as dermal or transdermal patches, are a type of advanced skincare product that utilizes microneedle technology to deliver active ingredients directly into the skin. Unlike traditional skincare products that rely on the skin's permeability for absorption, these patches have tiny, microscopic needles that can penetrate the skin's outer barrier, the stratum corneum, without causing pain or damage. Microneedle skincare patches are often used for a variety of purposes such as anti-aging treatments, improving skin hydration, reducing the appearance of fine lines and wrinkles, treating acne, and even for hair growth when applied to the scalp.
