Abstracts

One-stop study abroad service is a comprehensive educational consulting and support solution designed to guide students through the entire process of studying overseas, from initial planning to post-arrival support. This service integrates multiple functions including personalized career and academic assessments, university and program selection, application preparation, document review, essay and interview coaching, visa guidance, and pre-departure orientation. Beyond application support, it often includes assistance with travel arrangements, accommodation, insurance, and adaptation to life in the host country, ensuring a seamless transition. By consolidating these services into a single platform or provider, one-stop study abroad services aim to reduce complexity, save time, and improve success rates, making international education more accessible and manageable for students and their families.

The global One-stop Study Abroad Service market size was estimated at USD 9543.0 million in 2025 and is projected to grow at a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 8.30% during the forecast period.

This report offers a comprehensive and in-depth analysis of the global One-stop Study Abroad Service market, covering all critical facets from a broad macroeconomic overview to detailed micro-level insights. It examines market size, competitive landscape, emerging development trends, niche segments, key drivers and challenges, as well as conducts SWOT and value chain analyses.

The insights provided enable readers to understand the competitive dynamics within the industry and formulate effective strategies to enhance profitability and market positioning. Additionally, the report presents a clear framework for evaluating the current status and future outlook of business organizations operating in this sector.
