Abstracts

Pet care liability insurance is a risk protection service provided to pet owners, mainly covering pet medical expenses, third-party liability compensation and additional care needs. It is divided into medical insurance, liability insurance, comprehensive insurance and other types, covering disease treatment, accidental injuries, property loss of others and other scenarios. The global market size is growing rapidly, with North America and Europe dominating the high-end market, and Asia rapidly popularizing high-cost products. As the trend of pet anthropomorphism intensifies, insurance services are upgrading to intelligence, prevention and globalization, becoming one of the fastest growing segments in the pet economy, and the market size is expected to exceed US$10 billion in 2024.

The global Pet Care Liability Insurance market size was estimated at USD 9012.0 million in 2025 and is projected to grow at a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 11.00% during the forecast period.

This report offers a comprehensive and in-depth analysis of the global Pet Care Liability Insurance market, covering all critical facets from a broad macroeconomic overview to detailed micro-level insights. It examines market size, competitive landscape, emerging development trends, niche segments, key drivers and challenges, as well as conducts SWOT and value chain analyses.

The insights provided enable readers to understand the competitive dynamics within the industry and formulate effective strategies to enhance profitability and market positioning. Additionally, the report presents a clear framework for evaluating the current status and future outlook of business organizations operating in this sector.
