Abstracts

Golf is an outdoor sport in which individual or team players hit a small ball into a hole with golf clubs, and the player with the fewest strokes wins. Most tournaments have nine or eighteen holes. At present, the more well-known individual competitions in the world are: British Open, British Amateur Golf Championship, US Open, US Amateur Golf Championship, Masters, and PGA Championship. The most famous team competitions include Golf World Cup, Ryder Cup Europe-America Tournament, Walker Cup US-UK-Ireland Series. Golf will be reintroduced as an Olympic sport at Rio 2016. The British Open, the US Open, the Masters, and the PGA Championship are the four major golf tournaments. With the improvement of economic development level, consumers' health awareness around the world has increased, and their exercise and fitness habits have gradually strengthened. Statistics from CICC Enterprise Trust show that in 2020, the global sports industry market size will be close to US$388.28 billion, and its size will reach US$440.77 billion in 2021. The global sports industry has experienced a compound growth rate of 4.9% in the past 3-5 years, and is expected to maintain a growth rate of 4.9% in the next 3-5 years; the market size of the sports industry in North America is expected to continue to remain relatively large in the next 3-5 years. There is a strong growth trend; at the same time, under the background of scientific and technological progress and policy support, the sports industry in Asia, Africa and South America has huge development potential. As an important part of the sports industry, the sporting goods market has maintained overall growth in the past decade and will continue to grow in the next few years.

The global Professional Golf market size was estimated at USD 539.0 million in 2025 and is projected to grow at a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 5.60% during the forecast period.
