Abstracts

Short term rental platforms are digital marketplaces that facilitate the rental of residential properties, such as apartments, houses, or rooms, for brief periods?typically ranging from a few days to several months?connecting property owners or managers with travelers, remote workers, or individuals seeking temporary accommodation. These platforms provide end-to-end services, including property listings, secure booking and payment processing, user reviews, and customer support, while often employing dynamic pricing algorithms, trust and verification systems, and localized regulatory compliance tools to ensure smooth transactions and mitigate risks for both hosts and guests.

The global Short Term Rental Platforms market size was estimated at USD 105.8 million in 2024 and is projected to grow at a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 12.50% during the forecast period.

This report offers a comprehensive and in-depth analysis of the global Short Term Rental Platforms market, covering all critical facets from a broad macroeconomic overview to detailed micro-level insights. It examines market size, competitive landscape, emerging development trends, niche segments, key drivers and challenges, as well as conducts SWOT and value chain analyses.

The insights provided enable readers to understand the competitive dynamics within the industry and formulate effective strategies to enhance profitability and market positioning. Additionally, the report presents a clear framework for evaluating the current status and future outlook of business organizations operating in this sector.

A significant focus of this report lies in the competitive landscape of the global Short Term Rental Platforms market. It offers detailed profiles of major players, including their market shares, performance metrics, product portfolios, and operational status. This enables stakeholders to identify leading competitors and gain a nuanced understanding of market rivalry and structure.

In summary, this report serves as an essential resource for industry participants, investors, researchers, consultants, and business strategists, as well as anyone planning to enter or expand their presence in the Short Term Rental Platforms market.
