Abstracts

Stock Plan Service refers to a comprehensive range of services related to the management and administration of equity - based compensation plans in a corporate setting. It encompasses multiple aspects such as the administration of stock options and restricted stock units (RSUs), including tasks like tracking grant details, vesting schedules, and compliance requirements. It also involves brokerage services, providing employees with platforms for online trading of their stock plan holdings and, in some cases, full - service brokerage with personalized investment advice. Additionally, stock plan services include advisory and consulting functions. This helps companies design and optimize their stock plans according to business objectives and regulatory compliance, as well as offering support for understanding and adhering to complex laws and regulations regarding equity compensation. Overall, these services play a crucial role in ensuring the effective implementation and management of stock - based incentive programs for both companies and their employees. The overall stock fund market shows a growth trend, and the stock plan service market, being an important part of it, also benefits from this. With the recovery policies of major economies and the reform of capital markets, the US market, which accounts for 46% of the global market share, remains dominant, and its index - type fund (ETF) scale has exceeded $7 trillion. The Asia-Pacific region is the fastest-growing market. Regional theme funds that focus on emerging markets in Southeast Asia and global technology leaders will usher in a period of explosive growth. The digital transformation is accelerating the transformation of the industry. The transformation of investment strategies to intelligence is accelerating. The acceleration of capital globalization has led to a surge in cross - border allocation demand, driving the innovation of QDII2.0 products.

The global Stock Plan Service market size was estimated at USD 1824.0 million in 2025 and is projected to grow at a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 8.30% during the forecast period.
