Abstracts

Total talent management (TTM), also known as total workforce management, is the practice of managing permanent employees and external workers under the same umbrella – from full- and part-time employees to service providers and contingent staff.Total talent management is an emerging solution within the workforce solutions industry that integrates permanent (RPO) and contingent talent (MSP) solutions to create an all-encompassing, holistic approach to talent management.The concept of Total Talent Management has been with us for a while now. Today, it has as many doubters as it does proponents. For some, a TTM solution will never be a realistic possibility. But it’s hard to argue with the fact that the direction of travel is clearly towards a TTM approach.

The global Total Talent Management market size was estimated at USD 1997.0 million in 2025 and is projected to grow at a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 2.10% during the forecast period.

This report offers a comprehensive and in-depth analysis of the global Total Talent Management market, covering all critical facets from a broad macroeconomic overview to detailed micro-level insights. It examines market size, competitive landscape, emerging development trends, niche segments, key drivers and challenges, as well as conducts SWOT and value chain analyses.

The insights provided enable readers to understand the competitive dynamics within the industry and formulate effective strategies to enhance profitability and market positioning. Additionally, the report presents a clear framework for evaluating the current status and future outlook of business organizations operating in this sector.
