Abstracts

A virtual personal stylist is a digital styling service or AI-assisted professional that provides personalized fashion and outfit recommendations through online platforms. Using data such as body type, color preferences, lifestyle, and shopping habits, the virtual stylist curates clothing suggestions tailored to each user's style and needs. This service may operate through mobile apps, websites, or chat-based systems, often integrating virtual try-on, AI algorithms, and image recognition to enhance accuracy and user experience. The virtual personal stylist industry chain can be seen as a combination of the digital service chain and the fashion product chain. It primarily consists of information flow, service flow, and product flow, and generally favors an asset-light digital model. The virtual personal stylist industry integrates AI-driven styling design, a digital platform, and optional fashion product integration. It encompasses data and content supply, platform operations run by human or AI stylists, and end-user services, emphasizing personalized recommendations, flexible delivery, and user engagement. The gross profit margin in 2024 will be approximately between 50% and 90%.

The global Virtual Personal Stylist market size was estimated at USD 4534.0 million in 2025 and is projected to grow at a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 16.50% during the forecast period.

This report offers a comprehensive and in-depth analysis of the global Virtual Personal Stylist market, covering all critical facets from a broad macroeconomic overview to detailed micro-level insights. It examines market size, competitive landscape, emerging development trends, niche segments, key drivers and challenges, as well as conducts SWOT and value chain analyses.

The insights provided enable readers to understand the competitive dynamics within the industry and formulate effective strategies to enhance profitability and market positioning. Additionally, the report presents a clear framework for evaluating the current status and future outlook of business organizations operating in this sector.

A significant focus of this report lies in the competitive landscape of the global Virtual Personal Stylist market. It offers detailed profiles of major players, including their market shares, performance metrics, product portfolios, and operational status.
