Natural Smoked Bacon is a type of bacon that is made from pork belly or back cuts, which are seasoned and then smoked to impart a distinct flavor. The term "natural" in this context typically indicates that the product is free from artificial preservatives, flavors, or colors, and is made using traditional curing methods. The smoking process, which can involve various types of wood such as hickory, apple, or mesquite, not only adds flavor but also helps to preserve the meat. This product is valued for its rich, smoky taste and tender texture, making it a popular choice for breakfast dishes, sandwiches, and various culinary applications.
