Report Overview

Pay-per-click (PPC) advertising is a digital marketing strategy where advertisers pay a fee each time their ad is clicked, leading to a website visit. This performance-based advertising model allows businesses to display their ads on search engines, social media platforms, and other websites, reaching a targeted audience. PPC campaigns are designed to drive traffic, generate leads, and increase sales by appearing at the top of search results or within content on partner websites. The effectiveness of a PPC campaign is measured by its ability to attract relevant clicks, convert those clicks into desired actions, and do so at a cost-effective rate, optimizing return on investment.
