BMI View: Botswana's infrastructure and construction sector is heading into a period of sustained growth on the back of continued investment in the mining sector and the development of associated transport and power infrastructure. However, we highlight challenges to sector development resulting from electricity and water shortages.

Latest Updates

The timeframe for National Development Plan (NDP) 10 has been extended until the end of March 2017. It will be followed by NDP 11, starting in April 2017. The reason for the delay is to enable new parliamentarians to participate in drafting NDP 11.
