Abstracts

The Executive Summary of China Phosphorus Industry Data Report is from CCM's report China Phosphorus Industry Data Report, which is finished on 25 Sept., 2015.

As phosphorus resources are irreplaceable and become scarcer, every country has adopted protection measures on it. Although the phosphorus ore produced by China accounted for nearly half of the global output, but it just took up a few of the global reserve.

This Executive Summary mainly states the production, export and price of phosphorus products (including phosphorus ore, phosphate fertilizer and yellow phosphorus). Besides, it also listed the protection measures of some countries, including Morocco, the US and China.

The Executive Summary of China Phosphorus Industry Data Report briefs you the general market information of China's phosphorus industry, helping you adjust your strategy.
