Abstracts

As a giant agricultural producer, China is also the largest production base and exporter of agrochemicals in the world. In recent years, Chinese agrochemical manufacturers have showed a development momentum benefiting from some policies promoting agricultural production, especially since 2011 when the 12th Five-year Plan (2011-2015) began, most of them have grown rapidly because the Chinese government had implemented new strategies from then on. Meanwhile, the competition among these companies is increasingly fierce as well. Product structure, the market, sales mode and investments in new fields are all key points attracting attention.

The report aims to identify major agrochemical producers in China through disclosing their development history, current situation and development trend. Also, it will help readers deeply understand the agrochemical industry in China.

Readers can obtain the latest information about 36 leading agrochemical producers in China listed in this report, including their company dynamics, product structure and market share and so on. For each company, it includes:
