Abstracts

This report mainly introduces the production and export situation of isopropylamine in China between Jan. 2011 and June 2012.

In regard to production, this report offers a rough estimation for variable production cost of isopropylamine based on its production technology and then lists some industry entry and exit barriers. What's more, the report introduces capacity, output and ex-works price of isopropylamine in recent years and gives some necessary reasons for their changes. Finally, this report introduces the production in aspects of producers and location distribution.

In regard to export, this report introduces export situation of isopropylamine in China in aspects of export volume and price, exporters and export destinations and gives some necessary reasons for their changes.

Besides, this report offers some basic information of major producers and does a simple SWOT analysis of active producers.

Contents

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

METHODOLOGY

1 PRODUCT PROFILE

2 PRODUCTION

- 2.1 Production technology and variable production cost
- 2.2 Entry and exit barriers
- 2.3 Annual capacity and output
- 2.4 Monthly ex-works price
- 2.5 Production of producers
- 2.6 Location distribution

3 EXPORT

- 3.1 Annual export volume and export dependence
- 3.2 Monthly export volume
- 3.3 Monthly export price
- 3.4 Producer export volume and export dependence
- 3.5 Export destination

4 CONCLUSION

5 APPENDIX

- 5.1 Profiles of major producers
- 5.2 SWOT analysis of active producers
