Abstracts

The Executive Summary of Future of High Intensity Sweeteners in China is from CCM's report Future of High Intensity Sweeteners in China, which was finished in August, 2015.

China is an important producer of high intensity sweeteners (HIS) in the world. Due to the increasing demand from food and beverage industries as well as the stable recovery of overseas market, HIS industry in China has witnessed rapid development since 2008.

China's domestically produced HIS are export-oriented. In 2014, 71,430 tonnes of the products are exported, accounting for about 67.86% of the total output nationwide.

When it comes to the consumption of HIS, the downstream market of HIS is still relatively small. HIS is mainly consumed in roasted seeds and nuts, glace fruit and milk beverages in China.

The Executive Summary of Future of High Intensity Sweeteners in China briefs you the production, price and consumption of high intensity sweeteners in China, showing you the development and future of China's high intensity sweeteners industry.
