Abstracts

Lycopene is expensive health care product, and the open information about its production and market is scarce. The report looks at lycopene in the past, at present (2005 & 2006) and in the future (till 2010), especially about current market information. In technology section, the most popular method and most promising one are discussed and introduced detailedly. In production section, production status about each active producers is abstracted in three tables, and current production character existing in lycopene industry is found out and discussed. The import & export volume in 2003~2005 is analyzed based on the custom data, summary and comment in word is also conducted. Besides active lycopene manufacturers, major producers of lycopene soft capsule are also listed in this report.

Contents

Executive summary
Introduction & definition

I PRODUCTION AND MARKET INFORMATION

- I-1 Sources of lycopene in China
- I-2 Brief introduction to the production technology for lycopene in China
 - I-2.1 Organic solvent extraction
 - I-2.2 CO₂ super critical extraction of lycopene in China
 - I-2.3 Microbe ferment
 - I-2.4 Chemical synthesis
- I-3 Development history of lycopene in China
- I-4 Production situation of lycopene in China
- I-5 Current production situation of lycopene soft capsule in China
- I-6 Supply situation of raw materials
- I-7 Pricing in the past and its trend in the future
- I-8 Import and export situation in the recent 3 years
 - I-8.1 Summary of export and import in recent three years
 - I-8.2 Export analysis
 - I-8.3 Import analysis
- I-9 Consumption pattern of lycopene in China
 - I-9.1 Application of lycopene in China
 - I-9.2 Brief introduction to major end-use segments
- I-10 Key factors and driven forces for the development of lycopene in China
- I-11 Forecasts on lycopene in the next 5-10 years
- I-12 Conclusion

II APPENDIX: PROFILE OF MAJOR PRODUCERS IN CHINA

- II-01 Hebei Shijiazhang North China Pharmaceutical Co., Ltd.
- ...
- II-38 Tianjin Jianfeng Natural Product R&D Co., Ltd
