Abstracts

The Executive Summary of Production and Market of Monosodium Glutamate (MSG) in China is from CCM's report Production and Market of Monosodium Glutamate (MSG) in China, which is finished on 15 July, 2015.

The monosodium glutamate (MSG) industry in China has been progressing in the last few years, though the Chinese government strictly supervises the production process of MSG. The MSG capacity declined since 2012, while its output fluctuated during 2009-2014.

This Executive summary mainly states the production situation, status of main producers, methods adopted by producers, export and application fields of MSG, and also gives forecasts to MSG's consumption, supply and demand situation in the next five years (2015-2019).

The Executive Summary of Production and Market of Monosodium Glutamate (MSG) in China helps you clearly know the market information of MSG industry and to adjust your production or investment plan more precisely.
