Executive Summary

Homeware are products which effortlessly top move and replace, and comprises of products that are not strictly functionally required in a decorated place. Homeware products comprise of curtains, pillows, tablecloths and aesthetic craft items, wrought iron among others. These products are mostly used in indoor furnishings and layout which can include cloth items, wall hangings and planters.

Home furnishing items or goods are used to furnish a home, including both furniture and things used to decorate the home and make it more hospitable. Home furnishing products include, door mats, rugs, bath linen, bed covers, comforters, etc. European Home Furnishings market can be segmented on the basis of product home furniture, floor coverings and wall decor and home textile.

European homeware and home furnishings market has increased significantly during the years 2016-2019, in 2020, the market declined due to COVID-19 and projections are made that the market would rise in the next four years i.e. 2021-2025 tremendously. The homeware and home furnishings market is expected to increase due to the increasing influence of social media, growing disposable income, rising penetration of e-commerce, growing urbanization, increase in construction activities and increasing millennials and Gen-Z population. Yet, the market faces some challenges such as volatility in the prices of raw material and high degree of completion.

The COVID-19 pandemic had a mixed effect on the European homeware and home furnishings market. It negatively affected the market in 1st and 2nd quarter but the market picked up in 3rd and 4th quarter. ?
